

Cookies Policy

This policy explains how Associated Architects ("the Company") uses cookies and similar technologies when you visit our website. It should be read alongside our Privacy Information Policy, which explains how we use personal data.

What are cookies

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device (such as a computer, tablet or mobile phone) when you visit a website.

They are widely used to enable websites to function effectively, improve user experience and provide information to website owners.

Types of cookies we use:

We may use the following types of cookies:

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to use basic functions such as page navigation and access to secure areas.

Without these cookies, the website cannot function properly.

Performance and analytical cookies

These cookies allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors to our website and to see how visitors move around when using it.

This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example by ensuring that users can find what they are looking for easily.

Where these cookies are used, they are only placed with your consent.

Functionality cookies

These cookies are used to recognise you when you return to our website.

They may enable us to personalise content or remember your preferences.

Where these cookies are used, they are only placed with your consent.

How we use cookies

We use cookies to:

- Ensure that our website functions correctly;
- Improve the performance and usability of our website;
- Understand how our website is used and identify areas for improvement.

We do not use cookies to collect more information than is necessary or to process personal data in a way that is inconsistent with our Privacy Information Policy.

Consent to cookies

Where cookies are not strictly necessary, we will request your consent before placing them on your device.

You can provide or withdraw your consent at any time through the cookie settings available on our website.

Managing cookies

You can control and manage cookies in a number of ways:

- Through the cookie consent options presented on our website;
- By adjusting your browser settings to block or delete cookies.

Please note that restricting cookies may affect the functionality of our website.

Further information on how to manage cookies can be found through your browser provider.

Third-party cookies

In some cases, we may use cookies provided by trusted third parties, for example to support website analytics.

Where third-party cookies are used, they will be subject to appropriate safeguards and, where required, your consent.

Further information

Further information on how we process personal data is set out in our Privacy Information Policy.
